SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:I. Background

DoD, GSA, and NASA are proposing to amend the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) to establish a uniform line item identification structure for the Federal procurement system, planned for implementation during the Fiscal Year (FY) 2016 timeframe. The uniform line item identification structure is designed to improve the accuracy, traceability, and usability of procurement data. This case continues Federal procurement efforts to more robustly implement the objectives of the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act of 2006, including promoting achievement of rigorous accountability of procurement dollars and processes.

Currently, funding traceability is limited to contract-level information in agency contract writing systems which limits the capability to implement and effectively conduct and benefit from initiatives, such as strategic sourcing, on a Federal-wide basis. Use of such a line item identification structure will support efficiency in the tracking of goods and services through identification of key attributes, such as unit pricing on fixed price contracts, which will support tracing of funding from obligation through expenditure.

With this proposed rule, the Federal procurement community continues to improve standardization of a unique instrument identifier, moving the procurement community in the direction of enhancing the uniformity and consistency of data. This, in turn, will promote the achievement of rigorous accountability of procurement dollars and processes previously mentioned and compliance with regulatory and statutory acquisition requirements such as those of the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act of 2006. The proposed FAR coverage is adapted and revised from the Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement, 48 CFR subpart 204.71, Uniform Contract Line Item Numbering System.

II. Proposed Changes to FAR

The coverage dealing with uniform line item identification has been significantly expanded. The rule provides for the following:

(1) Definitions of “line item” and “subline item” have been added to FAR subpart 2.1.

(2) At FAR 4.1001, a revised policy statement has been added to require the use of line items, and as necessary, subline items, in order to improve the accuracy, traceability and usability of procurement data.

(3) At FAR 4.1002, a section on applicability of the policies on line item identification to virtually all contract actions has been added.

(4) At FAR 4.1003, a section on establishing line items was added. The policy is that deliverables with the following characteristics should have separate line or subline items; separately identifiable, single unit price or total price; single accounting classification citation; separate delivery schedule, destination, period or place of performance, and same or different contract pricing types.

(5) At FAR 4.1004, a section on establishing subline items was formulated. The coverage distinguishes between deliverable and informational subline items and identifies the circumstances when each should be used.

(6) At FAR 4.1005–1, the required data elements for inclusion with each line item or subline item in the procurement instrument are identified. At 4.1005–2, circumstances are identified when certain required data elements are not necessary.

(7) At FAR 4.1006, coverage is included regarding modifications.

(8) FAR 4.1007 discusses allowing offerors to propose an alternative line item structure.

(9) At FAR 4.1008, the prescription for the solicitation provision allowing an alternative line item structure is detailed.

(10) At FAR parts 5, 7, 14, and 15, cross references to contract line items (CLINS) and subline items are conformed with this rule.

(11) At FAR subpart 8.4, coverage is revised to address application of line items and subline items to Federal Supply Schedules.

(12) At FAR 16.505, coverage is revised to address line items for indefinite-delivery contracts.

(13) At FAR 52.204–YY, the proposed provision prescribed at 4.1008 is delineated.

(14) At 52.212–1, Instructions to Offerors Commercial Items, and 52.212–4, Contract Terms and Conditions-Commercial Items, the provision for commercial items has been revised to address alternative line item identification structure.

III. Executive Orders 12866 and 13563

Executive Orders (E.O.s) 12866 and 13563 direct agencies to assess all costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, if regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, distributive impacts, and equity). E.O. 13563 emphasizes the importance of quantifying both costs and benefits, of reducing costs, of harmonizing rules, and of promoting flexibility. This is not a significant regulatory action under section 6(a)(3)(A) of E.O. 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, dated September 30, 1993. Therefore, this rule was not subject to Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs review under section 6(b) of E.O. 12866. This rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 804.

III. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The change may have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities within the meaning of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq. The Initial Regulatory Flexibility Analysis (IRFA) is summarized as follows:

The proposed rule establishes a uniform line item identification structure for the Federal procurement system. The uniform line item identification structure is designed to improve the accuracy, traceability, and usability of procurement data. This proposed rule continues Federal procurement efforts to more robustly implement the objectives of the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act of 2006, including promoting achievement of rigorous accountability of procurement dollars and processes.

The requirements in the proposed rule have the potential to have an impact on any entity, small or large, that does business with the Federal Government because the proposed rule would apply to purchases of items, including commercial items and commercially available off-the-shelf items, and purchases under the simplified acquisition threshold. However, line item pricing is a common commercial practice, therefore the impact on a number of entities may not be significant.

Any small business that contracts with a Federal agency could be impacted to at least some extent. Using data from the Federal Procurement Data System (FPDS), there were 107,172 such small entities in FY 2010, 97,626 in FY 2011, 85,749 in FY 2012, and 73,987 small entities in FY 2013, doing business with the Federal Government.

The proposed rule could require some contractors to restructure their proposal pricing process as well as their systems to accommodate the line item identification system. This change may also require contractors to make changes to their pricing and electronic systems. Contractors may also have to develop more extensive pricing data to conform to a new line item structure. However, this consistent line item identification policy should be beneficial to contractors doing business with executive branch agencies. This is especially true if contractors already have contracts with the Department of Defense (DoD), because these identification standards are already in use. Accordingly, contractors that currently contract with DoD will not be impacted. The FAR system does not have data at this time as to the net cost/benefit to contractors in making this change.

The Regulatory Secretariat has submitted a copy of the IRFA to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration. A copy of the IRFA may be obtained from the Regulatory Secretariat. DoD, GSA, and NASA invite comments from small business concerns and other interested parties on the expected impact of this rule on small entities.

DoD, GSA, and NASA will also consider comments from small entities concerning the existing regulations in subparts affected by the rule in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 610. Interested parties must submit such comments separately and should cite 5 U.S.C. 610 (FAR Case 2013–014), in correspondence.

V. Paperwork Reduction Act

This rule does not contain any information collection requirements that require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget under the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. chapter 35).

Subpart 4.10—UNIFORM USE OF LINE ITEMS

Sec.

4.1000 Scope of subpart.
4.1001 Policy.
4.1002 Applicability.
4.1003 Establishing line items.
4.1004 Establishing subline items.
4.1005 Data elements for line items and subline items.
4.1005–1 Required schedules.
4.1005–2 Exceptions.
4.1006 Modifications.
4.1007 Solicitation alternative line item structure.
4.1008 Solicitation provision.

4.1000 Scope of subpart.

This subpart prescribes policies and procedures for assigning line item and subline items and their identifiers.

4.1001 Policy.

In order to improve the accuracy, traceability, and usability of procurement data, procurement instruments shall identify the supplies or services to be acquired as separately identified line items and, as needed, subline items.

(a) Line items are established to define deliverables or organize information about deliverables. Each line item describes characteristics for the item purchased, e.g., pricing, delivery, and funding information.

(b) Each line item may be subdivided into separate unique subsets (called subline items) to ease administration. If a line item has deliverable subline items, the line item is informational. Subline items differentiate between or among certain characteristics of the line item, such as colors or sizes, dates of delivery, destinations, or places of performance. Subline items are established to define deliverables or organize information about deliverables.

4.1002 Applicability.

The policies of this subpart shall apply to the following procurement instruments, to include amendments, modifications, and change orders thereto:

- (a) Solicitations.
- (b) Contracts, including, but not limited to, Government-wide Acquisition Contracts (GWACs), multi-agency contracts (MACs), Federal Supply Schedule (FSS) contracts, agency indefinite-delivery contracts, and purchase orders.
- (c) Agreements that include pre-priced supplies or services.
- (d) Task and delivery orders.

4.1003 Establishing line items.

Characteristics. Establish separate line items for deliverables that have the following characteristics. A deliverable line item or deliverable subline item must have each characteristic except as provided at 4.1005-2:

- (a) Separately identifiable. (1) A supply is separately identifiable if it has its own identification (e.g., national stock number (NSN), item description, manufacturer's part number).
- (2) Services are separately identifiable if they have no more than one statement of work or performance work statement.
- (3) If the procurement instrument involves a first article (see subpart 9.3), establish a separate line item for each item that will be approved separately. If the first article consists of a lot composed of a mixture of items that will be approved as a lot, a single line item may be used.
- (b) Single unit price or total price.
- (c) Single accounting classification citation.
- (d) Separate delivery schedule, destination, period of performance, or place of performance.
- (e) Single contract pricing type (e.g., fixed price or cost reimbursement).

4.1004 Establishing subline items.

Subline items may be used to facilitate tracking of performance and deliverables, payment, contract funds accounting or for other management purposes. Subline items may be either deliverable or informational. A line item with subline items shall contain only that information that is common to all subline items thereunder. All subline items under one line item shall be the same contract type as the line item.

(a) Deliverable subline items. Deliverable subline items may be used for several related items that require separate identification. For example, instead of establishing multiple separate line items, subline items may be established for—

- (1) Items that are basically the same, except for minor variations such as—
 - (i) Size or color;
 - (ii) Accounting classification but see also 4.1005-1(a);
 - (iii) Date of delivery, destination, period or place of performance;
 - (2) Separately priced collateral functions that relate to the primary product, such as packaging and handling, or transportation;
 - (3) Items to be separately identified at the time of shipment or performance.
- (b) Informational subline items.
- (1) Informational subline items may be used by agencies for administrative purposes. This type of subline item identifies information that relates directly to the line item and is an integral part of it (e.g., parts of an assembly or parts of a kit).
- (2) Position informational subline items within the line item description, not in the quantity or price fields. Informational subline items shall not have prices or delivery schedules.

4.1005 Data elements for line items and subline items.4.1005-1 Required data elements.

- (a) Except as provided in subsection 4.1005-2, each line item or subline item shall include in the schedule (described at 14.201-2, 15.204-2, Block 20 of the SF 1449 (see 12.303(b)(4) or in a comparable section of the procurement instrument), at a minimum, the following information as separate, distinct data elements:
- (1) Line item or subline item numeric or alphanumeric unique identifier established in accordance with agency procedures.
 - (2) Short description of what is being purchased.
 - (3) Product or Service Code (PSC).
 - (4) Accounting classification citation. Multiple accounting classifications may be identified using informational subline items. If there are multiple accounting classification citations for a single item, include the dollar amount by accounting classification in the schedule (or a comparable section of the procurement instrument).
 - (5)(i) For fixed-price line items:
 - (A) Unit of measure.
 - (B) Quantity.
 - (C) Unit price.
 - (D) Total price.
 - (ii) For cost-reimbursement line items:
 - (A) Unit of measure.
 - (B) Quantity.
 - (C) Estimated cost.
 - (D) Fee (if any).
 - (E) Total estimated cost plus any fee.
 - (b) If a contract contains a combination of fixed-price, time-and-materials, labor-hour, or cost-reimbursable line items, identify the contract type for each line item in the schedule (or a comparable section of the procurement instrument) to facilitate payment.

(c) Each deliverable line item or deliverable subline item shall have its own delivery schedule, destination, period of performance, or place of performance expressly stated in the appropriate section of the procurement instrument. ("As required" constitutes an expressly stated delivery term.) When a line item has deliverable subline items, the delivery schedule, destination, period of performance, or place of performance should be identified at the subline item level, rather than the line item level.

(d) Terms and conditions in other sections of the contract (such as contract clauses, or payment instructions) shall also specify applicability to individual line items if not applicable to the contract as a whole.

4.1005-2 Exceptions.

(a) Indefinite-delivery contracts. (1) General. The following required specific data elements are not known at time of issuance of an indefinite-delivery contract, and will be provided in each order at the time of issuance: accounting classification, delivery date and destination, or period and place of performance.

(2) Indefinite delivery-indefinite quantity (IDIQ) and requirements contracts. IDIQ and requirements contracts may omit the quantity at the line item level for the base award provided that the total contract minimum and maximum, or the estimate, respectively, is stated.

(b) Item description and PSC. These data elements are not required in the line item if there are associated deliverable subline items that include the actual detailed identification. When this exception applies, use a general narrative description for the line item.

(c) Single unit price or single total price. The requirement for a single unit price or single total price at the line item level does not apply if any of the following conditions are present:

- (1) There are associated deliverable subline items that are priced.
- (2) The line item or subline item is not separately priced.
- (3) The supplies or services are being acquired on a cost-reimbursement basis, time-and-materials, or labor-hour basis.
- (4) The procurement instrument is for services and firm prices have been established for elements of the total price but the actual number of the elements is not known until performance (e.g., a labor-hour contract for maintenance/repair). The contracting officer may structure these procurement instruments to reflect a firm or estimated total amount for each line item.

4.1006 Modifications.

(a) When a new item (such as an added quantity) is added to the procurement instrument, assign a new line or subline item identifier.

(b) If the modification relates to existing line items, the modification shall refer to those items.

4.1007 Solicitation alternative line item structure.

Solicitations should be structured to allow offerors to propose an alternative line item structure (see 4.1008 and 52.212–1(e)). For example, when soliciting certain items using units of measure such as kit, set, or lot, the offeror may not be able to group and deliver all items in a single shipment.

4.1008 Solicitation provision.

Insert the provision at 52.204–YY, Alternative Line Item Structure, in all solicitations for supplies or services, including construction.

52.204–YY Alternative Line Item Structure.

As prescribed in 4.1008, insert the following provision:

Alternative Line Item Structure (Date)

(a) Line items are the basic structural elements in a solicitation or contract that provide for the organization of contract requirements to facilitate pricing, delivery, inspection, acceptance and payment. Line items are organized into line and subline items. Separate line items should be established to account for separate pricing, identification, deliveries, or funding. The Government recognizes that the line item structure in this solicitation may not conform to the Offeror's practices. Failure to correct these issues can result in difficulties in accounting for deliveries and processing payments. Therefore, the Offeror is invited to propose an alternative line item structure for items on which bids, proposals, or quotes are requested in this solicitation to ensure that the resulting contract line item structure is economically and administratively advantageous to the Government and the Offeror.

(b) The Offeror may propose one or more additional, alternative line item structures provided that each structure is consistent with subpart 4.10 of the Federal Acquisition Regulation. However, acceptance of the alternative structure is a unilateral decision made solely at the discretion of the Government. Offers that do not comply with the line item structure specified in this solicitation may be determined to be nonresponsive or unacceptable.

(End of provision)

■ 18. Amend section 52.212–1 by revising the date of the provision; and paragraph (e) to read as follows:

52.212–1 Instructions to Offerors—Commercial Items.

* * * * *

Instructions to Offerors—Commercial Items (Date)

* * * * *

(e) Multiple offers. Offerors are encouraged to submit multiple offers presenting alternative terms and conditions, including alternative line item structures (provided that each line item structure is consistent with subpart 4.10 of the Federal Acquisition Regulation), or alternative commercial items for satisfying the requirements of this solicitation. Each offer submitted will be evaluated separately.
